VAN WYCK ELECTED

Greater New York Chooses Tammany Government.

PARKER FOR COURT OF APPEALS

Governor Wolcott Re-elected In Massachusetts—Democrats Claim Victory In Ohio—News of the Election Results In Other States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The election for the first mayor of Greater New York is over at last, and the people of the new city have chosen Robert A. Van Wyck to the important office. The entire Tammany ticket was also carried. The election was singularly free from trouble. Party feeling ran high, but there was order everywhere. The police were not called upon to make arrests of disorderly and quarrelsome characters, as has been the case at nearly every previous election.

The vote in the various boroughs was as follows: Manhattan and Bronx—Van Wyck, 103,401; Low, 74,932; Tracy 55,255; George, 11,607. Brooklyn—Van Wyck, 76,628; Low, 64,586; Tracy, 36,223; George, 6,571. Queens—Van Wyck, 8,517; Tracy, 5,265; Low, 4,411; George, 863. Richmond—Van Wyck, 4,278; Tracy, 2,896; Low, 2,504; George, 521. Totals—Van Wyck, 228,875; Low, 146,233; Tracy, 99,539; George, 19,952. Van Wyck's plurality, therefore, is 82,752. The Tammany candidates for comptroller and president of the council were also elected by handsome majorities. New York state in its vote for chief judge of the court of appeals went Democratic.

The polls opened at 6 o'clock in the morning and between that time and noon there was a constant stream of voters pressing to the voting booths. At noon the vote was as large as it was last year at the hard fought election and so on.

Voters at ballot clerks had trouble with the ballots which they required for Rocky Point. Voters complained that they had been improperly used before and passed over the names of the regular candidate and that their ballots were invalid.

The vote for Justice of the Supreme Court Van Brunt who had practically no opposition, and Parker for Court of Appeals in the First judicial district, Willard Bartlett in the Second district, Parker C. White (Rep.), who had a Democratic indorsement, in the Fifth district and Henry L. Childs in the Eighth judicial district.

The vote in the state made numerous gains through out the state in the election of assemblymen and the Republicans will still have a working majority.

The official vote of counties in the election for judge of the court of appeals in New York state are estimated as follows:

English Comment on the Election.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The Times, commenting editorially on the election of Judge Robert Van Wyck as the first mayor of Greater New York, says:

"It is clear that a majority of the Democrats whom Mr. George would have rallied to his standard drifted back, in the confusion due to his death, to the Tammany camp, while the inability of the Republicans and the reformers to come to terms has practically given the game to the skilled Tammany machine men.

"If Mr. Low had been elected, an interesting experiment would have been tried, though even a stronger man than he might have found himself overmastered by his environment."

The Daily Chronicle also attributes Judge Van Wyck's election to the death of Henry George.

Interest In Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Great interest was displayed by the citizens of the capital in the result of the elections throughout the country. Early in the evening large crowds congregated in front of the newspaper bulletin boards and at various private places where the returns were displayed. In official circles the interest was intense, and many inquiries were made as to the results, particularly in Ohio and Maryland. In the absence of the president, his secretary and several members of his cabinet, there was no gathering at the White House, where the returns usually are received.

Of the members of the cabinet, Secretary Sherman, Secretary Bliss and Postmaster General Gary went to their respective homes to vote; Secretary Alger is on a visit to Michigan, while Secretaries Long, Wilson and Gage and Attorney General McKenna are in the city. They spent the evening either at home or with friends, where they became acquainted with the results of the elections. Assistant Secretaries Day, Hamlin and McKeighan also went to their respective homes to vote.

Jersey Senators Elected.

TRENTON, Nov. 3.—The state senators elected in New Jersey are: Burlington, Howard E. Parker (Dem.); Cape May, Robert E. Hand (Rep.); Hunterdon, John R. Foster (Dem.); Middlesex, James H. Van Cleef (Dem.); Passaic, Christopher Braun (Dem.); Sussex, Lewis J. Martin (Dem.). The senate will stand: Republicans 14; Democrats 7. The senate for 1897 stood: Republicans, 16; Democrats, 5. The vote in New Jersey was light. The Democrats polled a vote in almost every county and city and retain control of the senate. The house of assembly by a similar majority.

The assembly for 1898 will be composed of [illegible] Democrats and 20 Democrats, as follows:

Essex—Joseph P. Johnson (Rep.), Joseph Lee (Rep.), Edward F. Stiles (Rep.), George W. W. Price (Rep.), Albert L. Gulick (Rep.), Alvin C. Eley (Rep.), Carl Pierson (Rep.), Oliver B. Dawson (Rep.), Charles W. Powers (Rep.), Peter B. Fairchild (Rep.) and William C. Schaad (Rep.).

Killed by Powder Explosion.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Nov. 3.—James Moore, foreman; Mike Welch and three other workmen were instantly killed by the premature explosion of black powder in the electric railway cut at the head of Fifth street, in Victor. Tons of rock were thrown upon the workmen.

HE VOTED AND DIED

Suicide of a Prominent New Jersey Judge.

LEFT NOTE RELATING TO BUSINESS.

Judge Alfred Walling of Monmouth County Cast His Ballot In the Morning, Returned Home and Blew Out His Brains.

KEYPORT, N. J., Nov. 3.—Alfred Walling, for ten years presiding judge of the Monmouth county court, committed suicide here yesterday.

He went out and voted. He returned to his home in Broad street and went directly to his room. The members of the household heard a shot a few minutes later. His daughter Alnetta ran up stairs and found him lying dead upon the floor with a bullet in his brain. A note was found in the room saying that all his legal business had been settled satisfactorily to his clients.

The judge had been refused the nomination for surrogate because he opposed the Bryan Democratic ticket last fall. The nomination was given to David Crater, the last incumbent. Judge Walling's law partner, Benjamin B. Ogden, was named by the Republicans. When Mr. Walling was a prospective ~~candidate, he declared that he~~ would not run if the Republicans named Ogden.

Judge Walling cast a Democratic ticket, but probably voted for Mr. Ogden, his brother-in-law and partner, for the office to which he himself had aspired.

Judge Walling was born Oct. 26, 1845 and was admitted to the bar in 1874. He was a grandson of Cornelius Walling and a son of Alfred Walling, both of whom held important state offices. The judge was law judge of Monmouth county from 1879 to 1890 and held the offices of town commissioner and school trustee of Keyport.

He was also a director of the Farmers and Merchants' bank of Matawan and of the Keyport Banking company for many years, acting as president of the latter institution from 1892 to 1894. In 1895 he was chosen an assemblyman from Monmouth, being the only Democrat on the ticket who was elected. The judge was a widower and leaves a son and a daughter.

Republican Leader Resigns.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—George B. Cox, who has been conspicuous for years as the Republican leader in Cincinnati, has issued a card to the public, in which he declares his purpose to retire from politics and devote his time and attention to his family and his friends. He says he has contemplated this course for some months, but delayed it lest it might be construed as a desertion of his party, but now he will step down and out as a leader or so called boss, though he claims the privilege of serving as a private in the ranks of the Republican party.

He asserts that he never made a dollar or any other sum of money from candidates, office holders or public employees, either in city, county, state or national government, nor has he ever divided any commissions from any public contracts or franchises with them.

Moseby Makes Admissions.

ABINGTON, Mass., Nov. 3.—Nathaniel Moseby, who is confined in the local lockup awaiting a hearing on a charge of vagrancy, made an important admission in regard to the shooting of George P. Spencer at Hartsville on Oct. 16. He said that after he had the trouble with Spencer and was ordered from the yard and upon reaching the road he turned and shot in the direction of Spencer's yard. He does not know whether the shot took effect or not. He said he heard Mrs. Spencer scream after the shot was fired.

Two Killed In a Feud.

JUNCTION CITY, Ky., Nov. 3.—A fatal duel took place here, in which an old feud was settled and both of the participants died within a minute of each other. Some years ago J. C. Wright shot J. C. Blackerby while resisting officers to arrest him. The trouble was renewed yesterday. Wright fired on Blackerby, who returned the shot, both men fell, mortally wounded, and both died before the smoke of their pistols had disappeared. Blackerby was unmarried. Wright leaves a wife and two children.

The Haiti Trouble Settled.

BERLIN, Nov. 3.—The Berlin Post states that the difficulty which recently arose between Count Schwerin, the German minister to the republic of Haiti, and President Simon Sam over the arrest of a German subject named Linders has been already closed "in a manner consonant with the dignity of Germany." The story of a proposed naval demonstration in Haitian waters is, The Post asserts, an exaggeration and grew out of the coincidences of the arrival of three German training ships at Port au Prince.

Close Contest In Maryland.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—The Republicans have elected their entire municipal ticket in this city and will control both branches of the city council. They have also carried all three of the Baltimore legislative districts, and the seat in the United States senate now filled by Arthur P. Gorman hangs in the balance, so that a few votes may turn the scale.

How close the contest for the legislature is may be seen from the following table of counties, based upon partial returns and conservative estimates:

Republican.—Alleghany, 6; Anne Arundel, 5; Baltimore city, 21; Charles, 3; Frederick, 6; Garrett, 3; Prince Georges, 4; Somerset, 4; Washington, 5; total, 57.

Democratic.—Baltimore county, 7; Calvert, 3; Caroline, 3; Carroll, 5; Cecil, 4; Dorchester, 4; Harford, 5; Howard, 3; Kent, 3; Montgomery, 4; Queen Anne, 1; St. Marys, 3; Talbot, 4; Wicomico, 4; Worcester, 4; total, 60.

Wolcott Re-elected.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The total vote for the city on governor is: Everett (Nat. Dem.), 3,233; Williams (Dem.), 24,787; Wolcott (Rep.), 31,016. The majority for Wolcott is 3,896. The single chamber amendment to the city charter was defeated by a plurality of 5,635. The vote stood: Yes, 24,795; no, 39,430. Governor Wolcott's plurality throughout the state has been reduced, but he is re-elected.

Returns from all but three of the 33 cities and 305 out of 321 towns indicate a Republican plurality of about 88,000. The total vote for Wolcott, the Republican candidate, is about 166,000, for Williams (Dem.) 78,000 and for Everett (Nat. Dem.) about 13,000. The legislature remains practically unchanged.

The Voting In Kansas.

TOPEKA, Nov. 3.—Practically no figures are to be had to show the result of the elections. Both the Republicans and fusionists are claiming to have elected a majority of the 12 district judges voted for, but their claims are indefinite. In the Atchison district ex-Governor Glick (fusionist) has been defeated for state senator by R. T. Anderson (Rep.). No figures are to be had as to the election of the other state senator and the four members of the house elected to fill vacancies in Wyandotte county, in which is Kansas City, Kan., the Republicans elected almost their full ticket.

Democratic Mayor For Detroit.

DETROIT, Nov. 3.—The election of Major Maybury (Dem.) is assured with a majority of about 2,000. Thompson (Dem.) is elected treasurer by about 4,000. Schmidt, Republican candidate for city clerk, is reelected by about 2,000. Lovett (Rep.) won out for justice of the peace by 6,000. Nine Republican and nine Democratic aldermen were elected. The council will stand 21 Republicans, 5 Democrats, a Democratic gain of 2. Black, the Republican candidate for mayor, was Governor Pingree's man.

Democrats Carry Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Nov. 3.—Chairman Brenzel of the Republican county committee conceded the election of Dr. Conrad Dehl, Democrat, for mayor. Norman E. Mack of The Times, Democrat, claims the election of Dehl for mayor by from 5,000 to 6,000 and the entire city ticket by from 3,000 to 4,000, and the Democratic county ticket with few exceptions and the county for Parker by a narrow majority. He also claims the election of four or five of the eight assemblymen.

Mayor Batchelor Re-elected.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Nov. 3.—The Republican city ticket has been elected. Mayor Batchelor is reelected by 72 plurality. Last year his plurality was ——. The next city council will be almost entirely Republican, the Democrats securing only one alderman and three councilmen. The interest in the election was so great that [illegible] vote was polled, it is thought two-thirds as much as a year ago to 2,875.

Republicans Win In Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—Ward returns indicate the election of Colonel Clayton McMichael (Rep.) city treasurer and Horace B. Hackett (Rep.) register of wills by majorities approximating 75,000. Judges Biegy, Wiltbank and Ferguson were unanimously elected, they having been indorsed by both parties. The proposition to increase the indebtedness of the city $12,270,000 for [illegible] improvements has been carried by about 20,000.

Democrats Win In Virginia.

RICHMOND, Nov. 3.—The Democrats have saved Virginia by not less than 7,000 and possibly by 12,000 votes for governor and their other candidates on the general ticket. They carried both branches of the legislature by fully two-thirds majority and will reelect John W. Daniel to the senate.

Candidate's Sudden Death.

RICHMOND, Nov. 3.—A dramatic incident of the campaign was the death yesterday at Staunton of Charles Dick, who was at the Republican state convention nominated for the Ninth district. He stayed until after [illegible] and died.

The Result In Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 3.—The indications are that [illegible] will be returned elected by a plurality and Wyman [illegible] 25,000. The city [illegible] ticket was elected.

Died on Election Day.

SYRACUSE, Nov. 3.—W. J. Belden, Republican candidate for member of assembly in the First district of Onondaga county, died yesterday afternoon. He had been [illegible] for some time.

The Fusion Ticket Elected.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 3.—Thirty-five precincts outside of Lincoln and Omaha indicate the election of the fusion state ticket by not less than 12,000.

Democrats Win In Syracuse.

SYRACUSE, Nov. 3.—James K. McGuire (Dem.) has been reelected mayor of Syracuse by about 800 majority over Donald Dey (Rep.).

Had a Close Shave.

ANSONIA, Conn., Nov. 3.—Franklin Burton (Rep.) was elected mayor over Geo. T. Smith (Dem.) by a majority of 10.

ELECTION DAY RIOTS.

Trouble In Kentucky and In Virginia. Several Men Killed.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 3.—As the result of an election riot these men are dead: Frank Egbert, Republican; Howard Glore, Republican, member of Egbert's crowd; R. E. Deakins, Democratic deputy sheriff, and a man named John Smith.

Trouble In Virginia.

NORFOLK, Nov. 3.—A riot almost was precipitated in Berkley. There are two Democratic factions in the county. The Cole faction seized the voting place of the Newbern faction on Berkley avenue, but left the books in charge of the regular clerks, who, after an excited discussion, retired to the mayor's office and opened a new voting place, leaving the Cole crowd in possession of the old booth. Mayor McCoy expected further trouble and requested that one company of Portsmouth militia be held in readiness to await a call from him. This was done.

Fatal Fight In Kentucky.

MOUNT VERNON, Ky., Nov. 3.—A number of tough characters created a disturbance at the Crooked Creek precinct, in this county. Sheriff Mullins attempted to restore order, when a general shooting affray took place between the sheriff and his deputies and the disturbers, three of the latter being killed. The dead are Henry Langford, John Lawrence and Charles Payne.

THE SOUTHERN PEST.

Reports Would Indicate That Yellow Fever Is on the Decrease.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 3.—Official report of the board of health gives two new cases of yellow fever and no deaths. A man named Williams died at Spelgner Station, 20 miles north of here, of the fever.

Selma reports no new cases and no deaths. The only patient in the town has been unconscious since Monday and her death is hourly expected. The Selma board of health is informed that there have been two deaths from yellow fever at Greensboro, Ala., M. W. Chadwick, a banker, and a daughter of Henry Parrish. The remains of the latter were brought to Selma for burial, and many attended the funeral, the cause of death being given as meningitis.

Governor Johnston has been notified of a suspicious case among the state prisoners at Speigners, and State Health Officer Sanders has been ordered to investigate.

Hopeful In New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—The weather is cold and clear, and there are hopes that if it keeps up there will be frost soon. Things are considerably brighter in this city, everybody feeling as though the cold spell is going to kill the fever germs. There have been five more [illegible].

HURT IN A FIRE.

Thirteen Firemen Sufferers In a Blaze Started by Benzine.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—An explosion of benzine in the cleaning room of A. F. Burnett's big dyeing establishment at Seventeenth street and Fairmount avenue, blew out the windows and started a fire, in which 13 firemen and the engineer of the plant were badly burned about the face, head and hands, and were taken to the hospitals.

The list of the injured is as follows: John Killens, George Minnick, David O'Connell, Ross Rauch, Charles Vansiver, Joseph Fay, Joseph Toner, Jacob Young, Harry Dixon, F. W. Davis, George Preston, Charles W. Rau, Albert Herriman and John H. Adams.

Several are in a dangerous condition at the German hospital, although the surgeons do not think that any will die

British Columns In Maidan Valley.

SIMLA, India, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from Mastura says that Sir William Lockhart's columns are encamped in the Maidan valley, a hitherto unknown district, which the Afridis had boasted no invader could penetrate. A column has visited the notorious mosque and grove at Bagh, where the Afridi rising originated and which has been the center of the political and fanatical intrigue which has animated the outbreaks of the tribesmen. The mosque was left untouched and was not entered, but the trees in the grove were cut down as a mark of punishment and a sign of victory. The enemy offered the feeblest resistance and was easily dispersed, but as yet the tribesmen have made no proposals of peace.

CRAZED BY OPIATES.

A Bay State Man Slays His Wife and His Daughter.

WINDS UP TRAGEDY BY SUICIDING.

An Infant Son Was Also Shot by the Maniac, but It Is Hoped That the Boy Will Recover From His Wound.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 3.—Edward Hamilton, for over 25 years an employee of the Worcester County Institution For Savings, shot and killed his wife and young daughter and then shot his infant son and himself. Hamilton will doubtless die, but the baby boy may recover, the only survivor of the family tragedy.

The shooting occurred at Hamilton's residence, 43 William street. Hamilton has been in ill health for a few months past and has suffered from neuralgia of the head. He has practically lived on opiates for several weeks and is supposed to have suddenly become insane.

The only witness to the tragedy was the servant girl. As soon as the news of the shooting was reported to the police, officers were sent to guard the house.

The servant girl was at once conducted to police headquarters and was closeted for over an hour with Chief of Police Drennan.

Mr. Hamilton was married about seven years ago to Katherine Long, a professional nurse, who had tended him during a severe illness from pneumonia. Their married life had always been regarded as a happy one, and they had two children, a girl, Katherine, aged 3, and the boy, Edward, 1 year old.

Inasmuch as the servant was under guard, it was difficult to get at the facts of the shooting. It is said that Hamilton was seized with a maniacal fury and, taking his revolver, began firing at his wife and children.

Sullivans Island Mystery Explained.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 3.—The body of the man washed up on Sullivans island beach yesterday has been identified by Purser Martin of the steamer Iroquois as that of H. Johnson, who sailed from New York on his ship last week. He was a thirty-third degree Mason, and his clothing and jewelry indicated that he was a person of wealth. He arrived here Friday and went to the Charleston hotel, but left the next morning. Purser Martin says he acted strangely on the ship coming down. An overcoat and grip were found in his room at the hotel. The coat was made by George G. Benjamin, Broadway and Twenty-sixth street, New York. It is believed here that H. Johnson was not his real name.

Sequel to the Wabash Fire In St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—While 65 workmen were on a large scaffold extending the whole length of the Wabash building, which was recently partially destroyed by fire, a section of the platform gave way, carrying eight men to the floor below. Two were fatally injured and four others seriously hurt. Those fatally injured were: Otto Leyh, skull crushed; Herman Wertheim, internally injured. Otto Leyh is said to belong to a wealthy and prominent family, his father being editor of a German paper in Baltimore and connected with the German consulate there. His relatives were notified.

New Lawyer For Luetgert.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—Ex-Governor Charles P. Johnson, one of the best known criminal lawyers in Missouri and almost as well known outside of the state, has been retained to conduct the defense of Luetgert, the Chicago sausage maker, in the coming second trial for the alleged killing of his wife. Mr. Johnson gained great prominence from his connection with the defense of Dr. Jones Crow, the St. Louis millionaire who was recently hanged for the murder of his wife and child.

A Vain Attempt to Escape.

WEST POINT, Nov. 3.—Four prisoners confined in the post guardhouse awaiting the terms had an attempt to [illegible] themselves. They removed a portion of the brick wall, but the hole was not large enough to permit the passage of a body. When daylight came upon them their plans were frustrated, one of the prisoners had got his legs through the aperture but was discovered in a [illegible].

Further to Go to Washington.

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—Sir Wilfred Laurier and Sir L. H. Davies will leave on Monday next for Washington to attend the conference of experts between Great Britain and the United States regarding seal life in Bering sea. Mr. J. N. Macoun, the Canadian expert, and Mr. R. N. Venning, chief clerk of the fisheries department, will accompany them.

U. P. First Mortgage Bought.

OMAHA, Nov. 3.—The reorganization committee of the Union Pacific, which bought the government lien, the second mortgage on the property of the Union Pacific, has now purchased the first mortgage, by which the construction bonds were secured. Your Watch Needs Cleaning!

We have no doubt it does. Nine out of every ten Watches that fail to give their owners satisfaction need cleaning and oiling. Sometimes the owner neglects it too long and the results are worn pivots and other defects, on the part of the watch.

A GOOD WATCH IS THE CHEAPEST IN THE LONG RUN.

It will if it is carefully cleaned and oiled once a year. It will last a lifetime and be a hundred years. Such a watch is a source of satisfaction to its owner. Have it examined at once and if it needs repairing never allow yourself to be without a Watch one hour longer than you can help.

Watches Examined, Regulated and Set Free of Charge.

Ladies' Visitors always welcome. 33

CONSUMPTION

A WONDERFUL ACHIEVEMENT.

The Method by Which a Deaf and Blind Boy Was Taught.

William T. Ellis writes a paper for the St. Nicholas on "Helen Keller and Tommy Stringer," telling how the well-known blind girl secured funds for the education of a little boy similarly afflicted. By personal appeals to the public Helen raised a sufficient sum to send little Tommy Stringer to the Kindergarten for the blind at Jamaica Plain, Mass. Mr. Ellis says of the sensation in this institution:

"Thither, on April 10, 1894, came 'Patsy Tom,' as Helen called the blue-eyed year-old child. It was a pitiful spectacle that greeted his fellow friends when the boy was brought to the kindergarten. His life had been spent mostly in bed or in some dark place to care for him, and he could not walk at all. He was filled with confidence. Clasping his mother's neck he had no fear. He was a little beast, with all of the animal and none of the human."

To the appalled [illegible] the first rays of light [illegible] Helen and her teacher [illegible] permanent instruction could be secured. With almost [illegible] love, kind friends [illegible] education of this untutored mind. The lessons of discipline, regularity, politeness and obedience had to precede any [illegible] the teaching of speech.

How could this child [illegible] the remotest conception of any sort of language, be taught to talk?

The method, so [illegible] was this: Every time that Helen gave him the letters "b-r-e-a-d" were formed in the manual alphabet on the boy's own fingers, and also in his hand, by the fingers of his teacher. Again and again this was repeated, thousands of times. It was slow work. The mind had lain too long without knowledge to receive easily the idea of speech. Even after the teachers were sure that Tom understood the definite connection between the word "bread" and those finger motions, he refused to use his knowledge, because of his strange perversity. At last, after nine months of teaching and waiting, the little fingers voluntarily spelled "b-r-e-a-d," and the beginning had been made.

Other words soon followed, and ere long the mystery of speech was comprehended. Tom took his place in the kindergarten classes and learned all that was taught the other boys. Reading, writing, arithmetic, gymnastics and other studies were undertaken; and to-day, in almost all respects, save such as are entirely dependent upon eye and ear, he is as well educated as the average boy of his years.

BURNING WOMEN.

Satisfying the Savage Human Instinct of Cruelty.

The horrible punishment of burning women alive seems to have existed in Saxon England, but perhaps only in the case of slaves, says the Athenaeum. Under the Norman rulers, any woman, bond or free, who killed her husband, was burned alive, and the same punishment for this crime, and also for high treason, and even for coining and other minor offenses, continued or arose from time to time through the second and third periods until it was abolished by act of parliament in 1790, the last actual execution of this kind having, however, taken place six years earlier. The whipping of women for various offenses continued even later; public whipping was not abandoned until 1817, and cases of private whipping occurred as late as 1820.

There can be no doubt, we think, that the savage human instinct of cruelty had something to do with the barbarous punishments above mentioned. As the old Roman public longed for the carnage of the circus, as the Spanish populace crowded to the auto-da-fe in the flourishing days of the inquisition, so the lower (perhaps not only the lower) strata of English nationality took delight in witnessing tortures which, in all probability, were devised and kept up partly for their entertainment. Mr. Cleveland tells us that Judge Jeffreys, in sentencing a woman to be whipped, is reported to have said:

"Hangman, I charge you to pay particular attention to this lady. Scourge her till her blood runs down. It is christmas time, a cold time for madam to strip; see that you burn her shoulders thoroughly."

Black Art in Dating.

Although the ordinary has in the last 20 years made rapid strides, there is a certain sameness about dinner-parties which, to the habitual diner-out, comes but little short of dull monotony. A lady in Kensington originated the idea of giving every year a memorial dinner on the anniversary of her husband's death. The dining-room was draped for the occasion in mauve and black. The tablecloth was of mauve silk, and the only decorations used were violets. The ladies were gowned either in black or mauve, and the footmen were dressed in black breeches and coats and mauve silk stockings. On either side of the hostess sat two black poodles, excellently clipped after the approved French fashion, with mauve colored bows on their necks. The menu was remarkable for the absence of any color in the viands, save mauve, the rest being either black or white.

Handbills at Herculaneum.

It is probably the general impression that posters and handbills are modern inventions, but it has just been discovered that the ancient Romans practiced this method of advertising. In digging at Herculaneum there was brought to light a pillar covered with bills, one on top of another. The paste used to stick them was made of gum arabic. The bills, when separated and examined, were found to be programmes and announcements of public meetings, and even election proclamations.

Appropriately Named.

He was in a reminiscent mood.

"I recall one occasion," he said, "when I wore a bright red sweater into a field where a large, irritable bull was confined. I was not looking for information, but I acquired some."

"Such as what?"

"Well, among other things, I made up my mind before I finally got over the fence that that particular feature of my attire was appropriately named."—Chicago Post.

Made Him Tired.

Mrs. Yerger—Charles, I want you to go with me to a millinery store. I am going to pick out a new hat.

Col. Yerger—Is there any place in that store to sit down?

"I believe so; why do you ask?"

"Because I can't stand on my feet six or seven hours on a stretch while you are picking out that hat," retorted Col. Yerger, angrily.—Tammany Times.

LIGHTNING'S STRANGE FREAK.

How It Tore a Scottish Army Officer's Clothing to Fragments.

A most remarkable example of the terrible effects of a lightning stroke is described in the London Graphic. Maj. Jameson, formerly of the Scotch Rifles, accompanied by his father and mother, went into a meadow to pick mushrooms. Maj. Jameson was some distance in front, and there was a single clap of thunder and flash of lightning, which frightened Mrs. Jameson, and she and her husband went into a wood and returned to the house, expecting that Maj. Jameson would follow.

About half an hour later Maj. Jameson was found by a game keeper, lying on his face in the field quite dead. Around him, in a radius of several yards, were his clothes and boots, which had been torn and scattered about in an extraordinary manner. The lightning appeared to have struck Maj. Jameson on the right side of the head, tearing the cap he was wearing to pieces, and burning his hair off. It then passed inside his collar, down the front of his body and both legs, into his boots, which were torn to atoms, and then passed into the ground, tearing a hole about 18 inches in circumference and three inches deep.

The deceased man's collar was torn into 100 pieces, none larger than a sixpence, the front of his jacket was rent into ribbons, and the jacket and undervest literally torn to shreds, and the knickerbockers he was wearing were stripped off and scattered on the ground. Maj. Jameson's stockings and gaiters were similarly torn in pieces, and on the boots the lightning had a remarkable effect.

PROFESSIONS IN THE WEST.

In the Good Old Days a Man Had Several.

In the life of a modern business community a man must beware of too much wisdom, says the Chautauquan. The specialist is the man who succeeds and having once set his hand to an occupation, one dare never leave it under penalty of failure in what he has chosen as his life work. In the west all this was different. Versitility was a necessity. The successful man must know how to do many things. The gleanings of any one field of activity were too small to afford a living of themselves. This fact was accepted by the citizens of the country, sometimes with a grim humor which marked the west.

A young lawyer in a western town had out a sign which read: "John Doe, attorney-at-law. Real estate and insurance. Collections promptly attended to at all hours of the day or night. Good Gin cider for sale at five cents a glass." A storekeeper had on his window the legend: "Wall paper and marriage licenses," thus announcing two commodities for which there was a very small demand. One of the prominent citizens of such a town was a gambler, a farmer, a fighter and a school teacher all in one. There seemed to the minds of the inhabitants of the country nothing incongruous in this mixing up of occupations, it being taken for granted that a man would endeavor to make a living in the ways for which he seemed best fitted.

CHINESE QUICK CALCULATOR.

Mathematics in the Shop of a Colorado Curio Dealer.

Charlie Chan, a Chinese curio dealer of Colorado Springs, Col., is a mathematician with an ability to solve the most intricate of problems with almost lightning capacity, by use of a Chinese abacus, has just come to light, says the Boston Transcript. Some eastern tourists made purchases of Chan the other day amounting to $1,000. These purchases aggregated 2,000 pounds in weight. The merchant put his sack and began to figure the cost. The purchasers were aware he was counting, but the exact result.

It is stated the purchasers to ask questions about the mode of calculation, and to give them a lesson. The party found that the merchant from the orient had marvelous talent in handling figures. College professors were told to prepare examples to satisfy themselves went to his shop to put him to a test. Problems, portions of which were given to him, but he solved equal to the occasion and displayed a dexterity in handling his beads and accuracy in computation that caused the professors to proclaim him a wonder. Chan is regarded as the wealthiest Chinaman in Colorado and is a successful business man of 55 years of age. He proudly traces his ancestry back for 2,000 years. His musical talent is also remarkable.

Trees That Grow Flutes.

This is the asofar, which grows in the southern districts of Nubia. It yields a gum known to dealers as gedaref, or senaar gum. Dr. Schweinfurt tells us that when the wind blows among its branches it produces a sound very much like that of a flute. These musical properties are due to the fact that the base of the thorns, with which its branches are plentifully provided, is perforated by an insect in search of the sticky sap. The wind blowing in these little holes transforms the thorns into miniature flutes.

A Curious Superstition.

Among the superstitions of the Seneca Indians was one most beautiful one. When a young maiden died they imprisoned a young bird until it first began to try its powers of song, and then, loading it with caresses and messages, they loosed its bonds over her grave, in the belief that it would not fold its wings nor close its eyes until it had flown to the spirit land and delivered its precious burden of affection to the loved and lost one.

After serious illness, like typhoid fever, pneumonia or the grip, Hood's Sarsaparilla has wonderful strength-giving power.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effectual Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs, and difficult breathing; headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlandson the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet composed of diastase, aseptic pepsin, a little Nux, golden seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

N. J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn street, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition, resulting from a neglected cold in head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat, reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure; but to-day I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and and sound rest from their use.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn, and bloating after meals.

Send for little book, mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

MEDICAL REFORM IN CHINA.

Signs of a Great Change in the Present Methods of Treatment.

China has long been the stronghold of barbarous and complicated civilization. As an empire she has cultivated customs permeated by the most ridiculous superstitions known to mankind, says the London Medical Press. The frailty of scientific foundation, in fact, that lies at the root of their supremely clever ignorance is especially conspicuous in the art of medicine. Chinese practitioners, it is well known, dose their patients with wasps' nests, elephants' skin and every kind of filth and abomination. But signs are not wanting that a huge wave of reform is about to sweep over the medical world of China. In other words, the Chinese are beginning to recognize the superiority of western medicine. The process of adoption is likely, however, to be slow, although the government has officially signified, from time to time, its approval of the medical practice of the foreign devils. In China social reforms spread from the throne downward, so that there appears some remote prospect of the general introduction of scientific medicine among the population of that huge empire. If the emperor be really in earnest, the best plan would be to send over a large number of young Chinamen to the medical schools of Europe.

STORIES OF THE STREET.

Middletown People Are Talking About It on Every Corner.

It is sometimes an easy matter to fool the public, but you can't keep it up very long. They are sure to find you out; and every time a man is fooled, another skeptic is made. Skepticism is allowed when reading in a newspaper about some incident occurring in San Francisco or Iowa, but the circumstances are entirely different when it refers to some one right here at home, friends and neighbors, people you know, whom you can see, and with whom you talk it over. This is the kind of evidence at the back of Doan's Kidney Pills—homestatements by home people and the astonishing local work they have been doing has caused more talk among our citizens than the doings of any other modern wonder. Read the following:

It comes from South street, No. 43, the residence of Miss A. N. McLaughlin. Her statement should interest our readers. She says:—"About 10 years ago I slipped off a wet door sill and fell on my back. I was so badly hurt that I was laid up for three days. Ever since then I have been bothered with a weak and aching back. It seems when I fell I injured my kidneys and in place of getting better as time went by, they grew worse in spite of all the remedies I took to get relief. Doan's Kidney Pills came to me so highly recommended that I concluded to try them and procured a box at J. E. Mills' drug store. I commenced their use. In a short time I was wonderfully relieved. That to me is a great deal after the years of suffering and if Doan's Kidney Pills help a case like mine so very much, I can certainly recommend them to any woman having kidney complaint."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold for 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50 Foster—Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for United States. Sent by mail on receipt of price. For sale by all dealers.

Remember the name Doan's, and take no substitute.

J. M. Thirswend, of Grosbeck, Tex., says that when he has a spell of indigestion and feels bad and sluggish, he takes two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers at night and he is all right the next morning. Many thousands of others do the same thing. Do you? W. D. Olney.

Warning—Persons who suffer from coughs and colds should heed the warnings of danger and save themselves suffering and fatal results by using One Minute Cough Cure. It is an infallible remedy for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. W. D. Olney.

"I was troubled with quinsy for five years. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me. My wife and child had diphtheria. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured them. I would not be without it in the house for any consideration." Rev. E. F. Crane, Dunkirk, N. Y.

Pure blood and a good digestion are an insurance against disease and suffering. Burdock Blood Bitters keeps the blood pure, the digestion perfect.

Itching Piles, night's horrid plague, instantly relieved and permanently cured by Doan's Ointment. Your dealer ought to keep it.

Cascarets stimulate liver, kidneys and bowels. Never sicken, weaken or grip. Ten cents.

for those who will go to day and get a package of GRAIN-O. It takes the place of coffee at about one-fourth the cost. It is a food drink, full of health, and can be given to a child as well as the adult with great benefit. It is made of pure grains and looks and tastes like the finest grades of Mocha or Java coffee. It satisfies everyone. A cup of GRAIN-O is better for the system than a tonic, because its benefit is permanent. What coffee breaks down GRAIN-O builds up. Ask your grocer for GRAIN-O. 15 and 25 cents.

The Homeliest Man in Middletown,

As well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get a free trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs; a remedy that is guaranteed to cure and relieve all chronic and acute coughs, asthma, bronchitis and consumption. Price 25 and 50 cents.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of the worst kind of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for thirty years and had used many different kinds of so-called cures; but DeWitt's was the one that did the work and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him. W. D. Olney.

IN Pursuance of an order of the Surrogate of the county of Orange, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of Lucinda Heron Yocum, late of the city of Middletown, in said county, deceased, that they are required to present the same, with the proper vouchers therefor, to the subscriber, the executor of the last will and testament of said deceased, at his office, No. 16 East Main street, in the city of Middletown on or before the 14th day of April next.

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS. Orange County, Goshen, N. Y.

Notice is hereby given that the Annual Meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Orange county will be held in their rooms in the County Building, at Goshen, on WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER the 10th, at two o'clock p. m.

All persons having bills or claims of any description against said county are hereby notified and required to deposit the same, properly made out, itemized and verified according to law, in a receptacle provided for that purpose, in the Orange County Clerk's office, on or before the third day of such meeting. All orders for printing or other supplies furnished must be attached to the bills. In default thereof such bills or claims will not be audited at said annual meeting.

In order to secure the proper distribution of drafts for bills audited, claimants are required to enclose on their bill the name of the town in which they reside and their post office address.

Bills presented by justices or constables for services in criminal proceedings must state fully the nature of the crime committed by the person or persons apprehended or tried, so as to distinguish between felonies and misdemeanors.

Constables or any other officers making any charge for mileage shall state in their bills the points traveled to and from, together with the actual number of miles traveled. No bills for mileage can be allowed that are not so itemized.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 3, 1897.

Floyd Gardner sorrowfully admits today that the combination of "Floyd Gardner's brains and Horace Thompson's money" has gone into the hands of a receiver.

"It's no use bucking money against public sentiment" is the sound political aphorism to which one of the defeated candidates on the Republican county ticket gave utterance this morning.

In view of the result in Greater New York, the question to-day isn't whether Croker knows the Prince of Wales, but whether the Prince of Wales knows Croker.

One of the curious coincidences of the result is that the three Democratic supervisors in the towns of Wawayanda, Wallkill and Greenville are each elected by four majority.

The Republican bosses drove Mayor Stansbury into approving of the fall election bill for Middletown by telling him that "it would make the city safely Republican for all time." They realize to-day that sure things in politics are never sure unless the sovereign people are taken into account.

The merging of the city election into the general fall election produced this year a result that the concocters of that scheme of iniquity never dreamed of. City issues entirely overshadowed in importance those represented by the general ticket and instead of the Republican general ticket carrying through the local ticket, the latter dragged down the former. And this possible a bit of poetic justice. Without Louis Bedell's help the fall election bill would never have become a law. When he put the bill through the Assembly he represented to Gov. Morton that the protests of the people of Middletown against the measure was of no account. Middletown's vote, yesterday, defeated Mr. Bedell. It was a righteous retribution. It isn't often that political curses come home to roost so soon.

HEARING THE RETURNS.

Large Crowd Watched the "Argus's" Returns on King Street, Tuesday Night—Cheered the Good News, Laughed at the Rumor and Encouraged Their Republican Friends.

It was a great night for King street,—this election night just passed. There were more people there than have been seen there in some time and they stood there from 8 o'clock until 12:10 when "good night" was shown out on the curtain.

It was a mixed crowd. Republicans predominating, and while they did not cheer the good Democratic news displayed, they remained the whole evening and their little private chuckles must have been heard from George Baker's on Grand avenue to Egbert Crans' on Wallkill avenue.

The stereopticon man, C. C. Stevens knew his business and he had a first-class instrument. It threw a picture 15x20 feet, and every word written in India ink on glass could be seen as far as a view could be obtained on the canvas.

The first bit of news to stir the crowd was: "New York Journal claims Van Wyck's election by 60,000." This was followed by: "Waldorf carries the First Ward."

The Argus messengers from all points telephoned, telegraphed, drove and walked to this office, and the returns were received at a lively rate for a time. Everything pointed to the Democratic result in this city which was afterward announced. When O'Neil's election in the Second Ward was a certainty and announced, the crowd cheered vociferously, and the applause was renewed when the stereopticon said:

"Mance and Allen told them not to nominate Crans."

When the new "Big Five, O'Neil, Wallbert, Hirst, Gavin and Tierney" was announced there was renewed applause.

Reference to Louis Bauer and Floyd Gardner's part in the election in Wallkill caused a laugh.

Then an enthusiastic Democrat rang up the telephone from his home and asked to have the windows raised and the crowd cheer for his benefit. The request was made on the curtain, the crowd cheered in response and the gentleman responded: "Thanks," and the crowd laughed.

The Argus editorial and composing rooms were crowded until long past midnight, and everybody was in the best of humor. All the glum fellows were in the offices of the two machine papers.

OBITUARY.

Edward Minshull.

The many friends of Edward Minshull, formerly master mechanic of the Ontario and Western Railway, were shocked this morning to learn of his death, which occurred shortly after 3 o'clock, this morning. Mr. Minshull had been ill for some time past but he seemed to be greatly improved Tuesday. His wife and daughter, who have been his devoted companions during his illness, and other members of his family, were by his side when death came.

Mr. Minshull was the youngest and last of the children of John Minshull and Elibabeth Broadhead. His father was a Welshman, and the deceased was born at Glossop, Eng. He married Maria McGurn, at Stockport, Eng., when nineteen years of age, and the couple celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding November 14, 1896. They came to this country in 1854, locating at Lowell, Mass. Mr. Minshull was a capable mechanic and his services were much sought after. From Lowell, Mass. they went to Canada where they resided until 1860. He removed to Oswego, then to Susquehanna, returning to Oswego, coming to Middletown in 1880. His son John, who was killed in a wreck in 1879 was master mechanic of the O. and W., and he succeeded him. In 1891 he resigned, and retired from active work, and his son, Philip H., succeeded to the position he held on the O. and W.

During the past few years Mr. Minshull was a city park commissioner, and much of the beauty of Thrall Park is the result of his painstaking and artistic service.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: Philip H. and Frank, of this city; Thomas C., of Weehawken; George B. and Annie, wife of Burt Hasbrouck, both of Montclair, N. J.; James E., of Caldwell, N. J.

Deceased was a devoted husband and father, and his absence will create a never-to-be-filled vacancy in the home at 160 North street.

Fell Between the Cars.

Brakeman Andrew J. Survey, of the Delaware Division, had a very narrow escape from being killed at Parker's Glen at 3:15 o'clock, Tuesday morning. While walking over a freight train he made a misstep and fell between two cars, but struck just outside of the rails. He received a scalp wound and general contusions of his body, but he may be thankful that he escaped with his life.

Republican Cabinet Makers.

The Republican cabinet makers have been busy, this morning. The latest slate for the new council is Charles E. Mance, president, and Charles L. Elwood, city clerk.

VICTORY!

State and City Both Go Democratic.

COUNTY STILL REPUBLICAN

But By a Very Greatly Reduced Majority.

THE RESULT IN MIDDLETOWN.

Our Roosters After Long Retirement Again Strut Proudly.

THE RESULT IN DETAIL

The Figures Which Tell How the People of This City Threw Off Boss Rule and Made Sure of Lower Taxes and Better Government—The Result in the County and the Several Towns—The Next Board of Supervisors.

Yesterday was unmistakably a Democratic day. The State was redeemed; Greater New York declared by a smashing majority against Plattism, and against experiments in municipal rule with men responsible to no political organization, and placed the control of the big city's affairs in Tammany's keeping, which has never failed to give the city an honest and economical government.

In this county, although the Democrats could not wipe out the Republican majority, they cut it down very materially from last year's 5,500. The Democratic county ticket justified the expectations of its friends, and proved strong and popular. Every candidate ran well, and though defeated, they all came out of the contest with credit.

The election of Daniel P. Schultz in this Assembly District is a matter for general congratulation. He will represent the people of the district, not a favored few of its inhabitants.

In this city Democrats, with the help of many independent Republicans, won a most decisive victory. The revolt among Republicans against boss rule and machine dictation was so strong that many Republicans voted the whole Democratic ticket, the result being majorities for the Democratic State and county candidates, as well as for those on the local ticket.

The election of three of the four Aldermen insures Democratic control of the Common Council, for two Democrats in the present Council hold over. This places the control of the city government in their hands and makes them responsible for its wise, safe and prudent conduct. If they are true to the pledges made before their election, exercise strict economy in public expenditure, reduce the tax rate, give the city good and efficient government, and in all their official acts keep an eye single to the best interests of the city, they will merit and enjoy the confidence of the people, but if in any way they prove recreant to the trust committed to their care the people will reckon with them as it did, yesterday, with the Republicans.

It is a significant fact that the only Republican Alderman elected, Mr. Lawrence, in the Fourth Ward, was nominated in spite of the machine. His election is a great feather in the caps of the anti-machine Republicans, who feel that in the election of this man and the defeat of all the machine's candidates they have glory enough for one day.

The reelection of William D. Stratton to the Water Board is a matter for general congratulation for his services will be of inestimable value to the city if our water system is extended. The defeat of Dr. Gibson, by a small majority, is especially to be regretted for it leaves the control of the Board in Republican hands.

In Wallkill "Floyd Gardner's brains and Horace Thompson's money" went down before Jimmie Horton's popularity and the people's belief that he will faithfully represent their interests.

The result in detail is told herewith:

Are you sure that you're using the right thing for washing? If the work is slow and hard, and you have to depend upon rubbing, then you ought to get something else. And even if you have something that saves work it may be bad for the clothes. You may be ruining them.

Pearline gives the easiest, quickest, most economical washing, of anything that's safe to use. The more you investigate, and inquire and compare, the surer you'll be that Pearline is the only right thing to wash with. 339

Send it Back Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back. 339 JAMES PYLE, New York.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Not So Bad After All.

First Pretty Girl (angrily)—That fellow across the aisle ought to be horsewhipped. He has been staring at you for the last ten minutes.

Second Pretty Girl—Why, my dear you are mistaken. He has been looking steadily at you, excepting when you turned in his direction, and then he would look at me to avoid meeting your eyes.

First Pretty Girl (sentimentally)—I wonder—who—he—is.—N. Y. Weekly.

Truthful.

Tramp—I'd like a drink, but I don't suppose you'd want to change this five-dollar bill.

Bartender (briskly) — No trouble about change. Here's your medicine.

Tramp—Thanks. Ah! That's good whisky.

Bartender—Eh? Lookee here! This bill is no good!

Tramp—Yes, I said you wouldn't want to change it.—N. Y. Weekly.

Impressionist Pictures.

Here are some verses Thomas Wharton once wrote after visiting an exhibition of impressionist pictures:

"And if the purple curfew tolls the knell of purple days,
And the purple herd winds lowing upon the purple sea,
And the purple plowman homeward plods his purple way,
You may leave the world to darkness—but don't leave it to me!"

Testing Him.

Mamma—I wonder why it is that Georgie plays and sings so much for Albert since they've become engaged? She never seems to cease from the time he comes into the house until he departs.

Papa—I guess she wants to make sure that he really loves her.—Chicago News.

No Falling Behind.

Native (western town) — Did you notice those big hail-stones? Here are some I picked up. They are as large as hen eggs.

Newspaper Correspondent—By Jove! So they are. Immediately telegraphs: "Hail stones fell here today as large as ostrich eggs."—N. Y. Weekly.

He Was Afraid.

"I always expected you to marry Miss Uptown. You were engaged at one time, were you not?"

"Yes; but when I saw her beating carpets one day on the roof I realized that if I ever had a dispute I'd stand no earthly show, so after that I didn't go there any more."—N. Y. World.

A Proper Boast.

"There is one thing of which Lord Fizzlecash will be able to boast, besides his title," remarked Miss Cayenne, thoughtfully.

"What is that?"

"No one can truthfully say that his wife married him for his money."—Washington Star.

He Would Admit.

"You must admit," said the high-browed woman, "that many a man has gone to Heaven solely through the efforts of his wife."

"Certainly," said the disagreeable bachelor. "Otherwise they would be alive yet."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Very Fetching.

I know the girl I love to be
Most tender and most true
But, better still, I know she has
The legal tender too.
—Judge.

INEXCUSABLY CRUEL.

Sister Mabel — Young Dashaway praised my complexion the other night.

Brother Max—Sort of a powder puff, eh?—N. Y. Herald.

A Call Which Failed.

Snodgrass—I went to consult the divine healer about my rheumatism.

Snively—With what result?

Snodgrass—I did not see him. The attendant told me that the divine healer had been sick in bed for several days.—N. Y. World.

A Great Inducement.

"I have about decided to marry Mr. Drestbeef," said one Chicago woman to another.

"He is not at all handsome."

"That is very true, but his ex-wives tell me that he never opposes a divorce suit."—Judge.

A Theory.

Towne—I don't believe that alimony can be legally collected.

Browne—Why not?

Towne—Well, marriage is generally recognized as a lottery, so alimony must be a gambling debt.—N. Y. Truth.

How He Felt.

"You must have felt cheap?" said the sympathizer.

"Cheap?" said the man who had been relating the unpleasant experience. "I felt cheaper than a silver dollar."—Puck.

On Something Soft.

"I don't see how a brilliant man like Prof. Dusentrais can put in so much time talking to that insipid Mrs. Mok-talque."

"Oh, he is only stropping his intellect."—Chicago Journal.

Financial Activity.

"Do you think prosperity has come to stay?"

"My wife evidently does; she has begun to go through my pockets again."—Chicago Record.

FOR THE CAUSE OF CHRIST

INTEREST INCREASING IN EVANGELIST GEIL'S MEETINGS.

The Bible Lecture in the First Baptist Church—A Fine Address on Obedience—Large Attendance on the Evening Meeting—To-night's Meeting.

The Bible lecture in the Baptist Church, Tuesday afternoon, was on "Obedience." Evangelist Geil was as interesting as ever. The audience spoke in terms not to be misunderstood. Upon the dismissal of the service many declared it to be better than any previous one.

"To obey is better than sacrifice" (1 Samuel xv. 22) is the text. Obedience is better than sacrifice, because it is sacrifice and something added. The Orloff diamond, said to be worth half a million dollars in gold, was once the eye of an Indian goddess. A Yankee performed the operation and extracted it. It is now in the crown of the Russian Czar. A diamond is carbon and something better. That something which is added gives brilliancy and value, making it admirable for the diadem of a mighty potentate. Obedience is better than sacrifice, as a diamond is better than carbon.

"The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination."—Proverbs xxi. 27. Second text, Matthew iii. 15. Satan said "if" to Jesus, thereby requiring him not to take God's word, but ask proof by a miracle, otherwise it would have been proper for the Son of God to make a stone of the hills of Bashan into bread.

"'Act on God's word don't ask for feeling.' John iii, 7-17. Disobedience makes infidels of church members. Robertson says: 'Obedience is the organ of knowledge, and if anybody refuses to obey what he knows he shall know no more, whereas if any man obeys what he knows he shall be led like a learner swiftly in the path of truth.' Ruskin says: 'Every duty we omit obscures some truth we should have known.' The Bible says: 'If any man will do My will, he shall know of the doctrine.' Don't pray to hear the 'well done' unless you are doing and doing well. Fourth—Matthew x. 38: 'Christ was obedient until the death on the Cross.'

"It is expensive to obey Christ and be a full-rounded person. Fifth Text—John xiv, 15: If ye love Me ye will keep My commandments.' This is positive. You will not resolve to or hope to but actually do it. Remember that the ten commandments may be stated in two words, 'Thou shalt.' The two are better than the ten, as obedience is better than sacrifice. Instead of trying not to do wrong do the right. Do not try to keep evil company, but thrust yourself among the good. Do not try to put sin out of your life, but put Christ in and he will put the evil out.

"One day while seated in my parlor, learning to play the cornet, a cat walked in. I did not say anything nor touch the animal, but simply played a shrill bugle call, and in less time than it takes to tell it the cat turned around, jumped out of the window and went over a high fence. (Laughter.) I put the music in and it put the cat out. Get the good in and the evil will get out.

"Sixth text—Romans vi. 16: 'Ye are his to whom ye yield yourselves to obey.' Obedience is proof of ownership. Originally the name 'Christian' was given by unbelievers to those in whose life they discovered the Christ spirit. Obedience is better than sacrifice, as life is better than death. The bible study was closed with an illustration which brought the final truth to every mind. At the East London Flower Show a poor little girl claimed the highest prize. A geranium had taken it. The judge asked how the flower became so beautiful, and the trembling child told how a rich lady had called in the cellar to visit her when sick and gave it, saying, 'Keep it in the sunshine.' And she placed it in the only window in the morning, and moved it along as the sun changed. Obedience is to us where God's blessing shall surely fall upon us, and bring out all the beauty of the Christ life in the heart, and withal great growth.

"Obedience is better than sacrifice, for it does Christ as it lowers Christ."

EVENING MEETING.

At the evening service in the First Baptist Church every seat in the house was filled and chairs were brought in. The choir was larger than usual and the music was lively. Rev. Dr. Robinson read the scripture and Rev. Mr. Heath lead in prayer.

Evangelist Geil's talk was on "Spiritual Backbone" and was probably the strongest address he has given yet. Following is a brief resume. Romans 15–18 was the text, and after showing how Paul boldly preached, he asked why so many christians were afraid to mention religious things. No one gets angry at good news, so no one gets angry when you show him how to overcome a bad habit. The story of the college boys who took the head from one specie of beetle, legs from another, eyes from a third and fixed them on to the body of a fourth variety of beetle, then asked the old professor its name and classification received a new application. The professor classed it a humbug, and Mr. Geil condemned a humbug religion which had a dancing floor for the body, cards for the head, legs of beer bottles and for a tail a little religion. There was no danger of becoming too good, so it was not necessary to try to prevent such a thing by having a mixed religion. The Shetland Island, a conglomerate mass of mud and stones, is gradually wearing away, while the solid rock of Gibraltar stands firm. Be positive and have an unadulterated, unmixed religion.

NOTICES.

—Tickets for non-church members, permitting them to enter the Casino, Thursday evening, fifteen minutes before the front doors open, can be obtained by applying at the Y. M. C. A. rooms or at the Congregational Church, to-morrow evening.

THE "GROWN-UP" DAUGHTER'S DUTY TO HER MOTHER.

You can only have one mother; therefore, when her step is growing slow and her mind gloomy with forebodings, and you can see that her whole nervous system is upset, it is your filial duty and privilege to attend to her in time! Mother is approaching the most critical period of her life.

The change of life, that is what mother is dreading, and no wonder, for it is full of peril to all but the strongest women.

There are some special and very wearing symptoms from which mother suffers, but she will not speak of them to any one. Help her out; she doesn't know what to do for herself!

Shall I advise you? First, send to the nearest drug store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and see that mother takes it regularly, then write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., giving all the symptoms and you will receive a prompt reply telling mother what to do for herself. In the meantime the Vegetable Compound will make life much easier for her. It tones up the nervous system, invigorates the body, and the "blues" vanish before it as darkness flees from the sunlight. You can get it at any reliable druggist's.

Mrs. LOUIS STRONG, Harris Hill, Erie Co., N. Y., says: "I have been troubled with falling of the womb for years, was advised to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took thirteen bottles and received great benefit. When the time for change of life came I suffered a great deal with faintness and palpitation of the heart. I got one bottle of the Vegetable Compound and one of Blood Purifier and was relieved again. I was thereby enabled to pass through that serious period very comfortably."

MT. SALEM.

Death of Mrs. Courtright—Seriously Ill—Lost Dog Recovered—Many Other Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS AND MERCURY.

Mrs. Debarah Courtright, an old time resident of near Mt. Salem, died, Friday last, at the home of her nephew, Joseph Wilson, near Quarryville. Her funeral was held at this place, Monday morning, at 11 o'clock. She is survived by three children. Interment in Mt. Salem Cemetery.

—Mrs. Geo. B. Elston, of Westtown, sang a solo both Sunday morning and evening at the church here by request, which appeared to be enjoyed and appreciated by all.

—J. R. Northrup has had another severe attack of his old complaint and fears that he would not recover were entertained, though at last accounts he was feeling better.

—M. W. Elston's Newfoundland dog, which strayed away one day last week, was traced to Carpenter's Point. A general inquiry and advertisement in the Port Jervis papers and the offer of a reward brought the dog to his home one day later.

—Mr. and Mrs. Manus Vanhuwegen were made very happy one day last week by a first visit from their new granddaughter, little Miss Vanhuwegen, from near Greenville. She is a very welcome visitor.

—Miss Fannie Elston spent the month of October visiting relatives and friends at Oswego and Auburn, N. Y.

—Miss Abbie Hoyt has been confined to the house by illness for some weeks. She has been under Dr. Nugent's care.

—Mrs. A. B. Hoyt has moved from the Hoyt homestead to Port Jervis, where she will make her future home with her brothers.

—It is understood that John T. Hoyt's family, of Middletown, will move from that place to the Hoyt homestead, this month.

BLOOMINGBURGH.

Missionary Meeting—Good Templars' Public Installation.

Correspondence ARGUS AND MERCURY.

—A meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will be held in the M. E. Church, this (Wednesday) evening, at 6:30 o'clock. All members of the society are requested to be present.

—The Good Templars of Bloomingburgh will hold a public installation service on Friday evening, Nov. 5th, at 8 o'clock. The regular meeting will begin at 7 o'clock.

KILLED AT CORNWALL.

Thomas Collins Struck by a Train Tuesday Night.

Thomas Collins, of Cornwall, an employe of the coal docks, was found dead in the Cornwall yard by O. and W. train No. 29, this morning, about 1 o'clock. He had been struck by some passing train and his skull was fractured.

Its Worst Form.

"My daughter has been troubled with catarrh since she was four years old. She had the disease in its worst form and took medicines with no permanent relief. She finally began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills and after a while the disagreeable symptoms entirely disappeared." M. W. SILSBY, Hartland, N. Y.

Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver tonic. Gentle, reliable, sure.
